

Zucchini – Black Beauty

Key Features

- All-America Selections winner
- Best picked at 6 to 8 inches long

Description

“Dark green fruits maturing to near black, with firm, white, flavorful flesh that freezes well. Highly productive plants are semi-spineless and semi-upright, with an open growth habit. Harvest under recommended size for best eating quality or pick when extremely young for gourmet baby zucchini.”

--Seeds 'N' Such